Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 28, 2005 the RBC Bearings Incorporated's (the "Company") subsidiary, RBC Nice Bearings, Inc. and the United Steelworkers of America (AFL-CIO) Local 6816-12 entered into a shutdown agreement in connection with the Company's decision to close its operations at its Kulpsville, Pennsylvania facility. In connection with the shutdown agreement, the union has agreed to take no action against the Company in connection with such shutdown. The agreement also addresses closure and other transition issues related to pensions, workers compensation, adjustment assistance and other matters. The production conducted at the Nice facility will be moved to other RBC locations, and the Company anticipates no material impact on production or its ability to service its customers. The Company expects that such closure will not materially impact on its results of operations or financial condition.

On October 30, 2005 the Company's Bremen subsidiary entered into a new collective bargaining agreement between Bremen, Indiana Plant of SKF USA, Inc. and International Union Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Workers of America, U.A.W., Local 1368. The renewed agreement will expire in October 2009. The agreement is on substantially similar terms, subject to customary pay scale increases and other changes customary for such agreements in the ordinary course of business.

The information contained or incorporated by reference in this Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements, including certain plans, expectations, goals, and projections, which are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties. A number of factors, including but not limited to those set forth under the heading "Risk Factors" included in the Company's registration statement on Form S-1, and other factors described from time to time in the Company's other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, could cause actual conditions, events, or results to differ significantly from those described in the forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements included in this Form 8-K are based on information available at the time of the report. The Company assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement.
